

Prayer for The Ruth Harbor Family

Our interest and relationship with our residents doesn't end when they graduate from Ruth Harbor. They are part of our family. Keep each of these residents and their families in your prayers. Pray for God's protection and provision. Also pray for (in some cases) salvation and for spiritual growth.

Praise & Thanksgiving

Praise

Resident H- is adjusting to being a mom of 2 and is planning her next steps after RHM.

Resident H- continues saving for a car.

Residents continue working toward their programming goals and are advancing to their next phase!

Former Resident S- received help furnishing her new place; she and her fiancé are making household improvements as they are able.

Former Resident S's husband landed an amazing job for their family with benefits and good pay.

Former Resident R- is striving to work well on her marriage and her heart is softening to the Gospel; plans on putting her daughter in a private Christian School.

Several groups and individuals have contributed time, energy & resources to support our moms and babies:

- St. Elizabeth Seton Church & Lifehouse Community Church delivered Wish List donations collected during the Christmas season.
- A young lady is working on a service project to earn her Stars & Stripes Award (American Heritage Girls) and has chosen to bless RHM.
- Friends at Soteria Church ministered to a former resident with a Meal Train following their miscarriage.
- New Life Church delivered paper products they had collected in January.

Participation in the March for Life Donation Drive on a local level.

A new partnership with Bright Light Counseling assists our current residents overcome some of challenges they face on a daily basis.

Opportunity to participate in Hope+Elim's Local Mission Partner Fair; good connections were made.

Many have given generous year-end gifts allowing us to be ready to serve more young moms in 2024; several of these are first-time donors.

Prayer

Resident A- is busy making arrangements to move closer to family.

A perspective client is currently working through the admissions process.

Former Resident J- is up for a promotion to a management role at her job.

Former Resident E- began nursing school and is anticipating an upcoming medical procedure.

Former Resident S- & her husband as they mourn the loss of their baby due to miscarriage.

Former Resident L-'s father chemo treatments are going pretty well with minor side effects; staying as active as possible.

Opportunities to offer support and food assistance help to Former Resident A- who is currently handling difficult life circumstances.

Continued opportunities with our Family Life Care Program, to walk alongside former residents who need continued support.

Consideration of expanding our services to address the needs of women calling for help who are not in need of housing.

Possible opportunities to partner with a licensed therapist in order to provide biblical counseling to our former residents.

God's continued financial blessings in the new year.

God's wisdom and direction as we pursue the goals we are working towards in this new year.
