

Prayer for The Ruth Harbor Family

Our interest and relationship with our residents doesn't end when they graduate from Ruth Harbor. They are part of our family. Keep each of these residents and their families in your prayers. Pray for God's protection and provision. Also pray for (in some cases) salvation and for spiritual growth.

Praise & Thanksgiving

Praise

Protection from physical injury for Resident A- who was in a significant car accident early last month.

Resident H- is adjusting to being a mom of 2 and is planning her next steps after RHM; saving for a car.

Former Resident S- having a house-warming party to celebrate the purchase of their new home.

Former Resident E-'s medical procedure and recovery went smoothly.

Former Resident T- has started a new FT job.

Former Resident R- is striving to work well on her marriage and her heart is softening to the Gospel; plans on putting her daughter in a private Christian School.

Several groups and individuals have contributed time, energy & resources to support our moms and babies:

- OLIHC raised significant funds from a raffle and bake sale for RHM and another local ministry.
- Furniture donations made by individuals seeking to meet the needs of former residents.
- LCH Souper Bowl Food Drive filled the shelves of our pantry; able to bless several former residents from the abundance.
- Young people from Prairie Ridge Church served at our Carlisle Home as part of their Day of Love to support dozens of our local community partners.

A church has partnered with RHM to help fund the counseling needs of a client.

Opportunity to sponsor a Child Safety Workshop hosted by Valley Church.

Amazing counseling provided through our partners at Bright Light Counseling who are serving our current residents and kiddos.

RHM Staff participated in Trauma-Informed Training in order to better equip staff for serving the moms and babies God is sending to us.

A RHM Board Member has committed to leading a deck project at our Carlisle Home this spring.

"Anything that makes me need God is a blessing."

Prayer

A new resident, recently admitted, as she adjusts to her new environment and considers some big upcoming decisions.

Resident A- is continuing to make arrangements to move closer to family.

Resident H-'s father passed away; traveling out of state for the funeral.

Former Resident A- requests prayer for an unspoken request.

Former Resident J- has need for a new van; granted full temporary custody of daughters.

Former Resident E- requests prayer for deliverance from codependency.

Former Resident R- is currently pregnant; seeking community with our Family Life Care Program to serve as needed support.

Former Resident S- learned that her heart is functioning at 50%.

Possible ways to partner with a correctional facility for women.

Continued opportunities with our Family Life Care Program, to walk alongside former residents who need continued support.

A partnering ministry is enduring a renegade volunteer seeking to be harmful and putting out false information on social media.

Consideration of expanding our services to address the needs of women calling for help who are not in need of housing.

A RHM staff member experienced an unexpected death in the family; requests prayer for all.

God's wisdom and direction as we pursue the goals we are working towards in this new year.
